

AAU Taekwondo and Athletes Without Limits are teaming up to bring the best U.S. TKD players with intellectual impairment to Virtus International competition!

The Athletes Without Limits U.S. Taekwondo team has competed around the world, from Australia to Ecuador, in the biggest Poomsae competitions run by Virtus and World Taekwondo.

U.S. Athletes have brought home medals and world championships while proudly representing the USA. Learn more at: <https://www.athleteswithoutlimits.org/taekwondo>

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

There are three competition classes at Virtus championships:

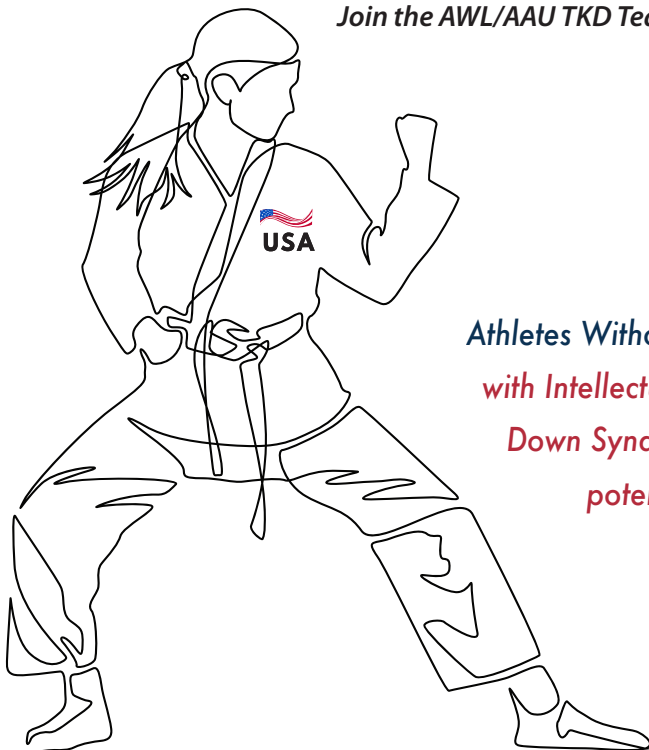

- II1 – Intellectual Disability
- II2 – Down Syndrome and Similar Disabilities
- II3 – Autism without Intellectual Disability

Learn more and apply at: <https://www.athleteswithoutlimits.org/eligibility>

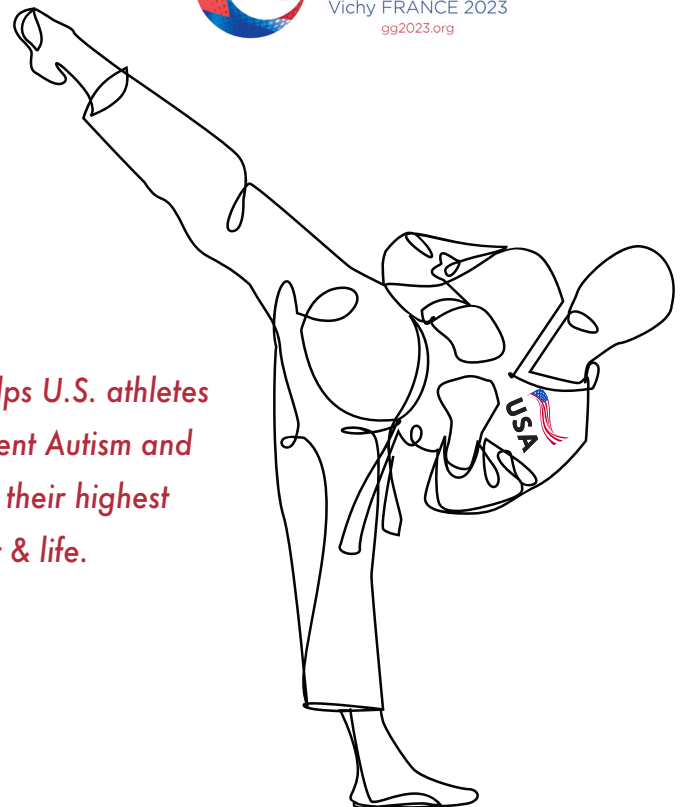

UPCOMING EVENTS:

- 2022 Virtus Americas Regional Games in Brazil
- 2023 Virtus Global Games in France.

Join the AWL/AAU TKD Team Today!

Athletes Without Limits helps U.S. athletes with Intellectual Impairment Autism and Down Syndrome reach their highest potential in sport & life.

U.S. ATHLETE ELIGIBILITY FOR:

U.S. NATIONAL TEAMS AT:

